

3 Maths homework

Read the dialogue and circle the right words.

Mia ____ Oh, hi Luca. Has / Have you start / started the maths homework?

Luca ____ No, I have / haven't, because Grace is here and I has / 've play / played some games with her. Why, what's the matter?

Mia ____ Well, I 've / has try / tried to do it, but I can't. It's too hard!

Luca ____ I'm sorry I can't help you, Mia. Has / Have you phone / phoned Ellie? Perhaps she has / have finish / finished her homework.

Mia ____ No, she haven't / hasn't. I know because I've / I haven't already talk / talked to her! ▶ SB p. 76

4 At Luca's house

Luca's dad is a fire officer. He often works at night and sleeps in the afternoon. When his dad wakes up, Luca tells him what has happened. Complete the sentences.

1 Grace has played with me. (play)

2 I 've also cooked the dinner. (cook)

3 Mum and Jack have bought some things in town. (buy)

4 Ellie has texted me. (text)

5 She and her mum have talked a bit about her dad. (talk)

6 And I 've invited her for tomorrow evening. Is that OK? (invite)

▶ SB p. 76

has / have, 've
+ correct form of verb

5 Ellie has decided to change things

What has she done today? Write the sentences. Use the present perfect.

1 She has helped her mum at home.

2 She has eaten a good breakfast

3 She has drunk lots of water

4 She hasn't bought any crisps

5 She has done her homework

6 Ellie and Zoe haven't watched TV

So Ellie is feeling happy with herself – and she can eat a nice piece of chocolate cake!

Help mum ✓
Eat a good breakfast ✓
Drink lots of water ✓
Don't buy any crisps ✓
Do my homework ✓
Don't watch TV ✓

▶ SB p. 76