

Visit Dartmoor with Ranger Ralph

Hello. I'm Ranger Ralph. Welcome to Dartmoor. You can do lots of great activities on Dartmoor. You can go ...

hang-gliding

mud running

climbing

tree surfing

What is Dartmoor?

It's a national park in the south-west of England. Lots of tourists go there every year because it's a beautiful, wild and lonely place. There are lots of rivers, trees and hills on Dartmoor. People call the hills tors. They're very special.

1 A Dartmoor brochure

Look at the brochure and talk about these questions in your group.

- 1 What would you like to see on Dartmoor?
- 2 Which Dartmoor activity would you like to try?
- 3 Which animals would you like to see on Dartmoor?
- 4 Which Dartmoor story would you like to read?
- 5 Would you like to go to Dartmoor? Why? Why not?

I'd like to try / see / read / go to ...

I think Dartmoor is exciting / fun / boring / quiet / ...

There are lots of animals on Dartmoor.

Dartmoor ponies are everywhere. You have to be careful. Don't stroke or feed them – they could bite.

There are lots of sheep on Dartmoor. They walk on the roads, so drive carefully.

badger

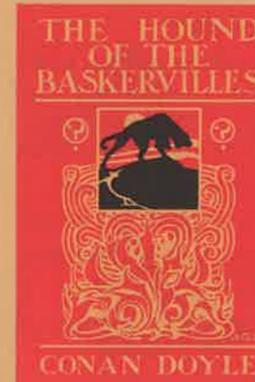

owl

fox

You can find wild birds and animals on Dartmoor too.

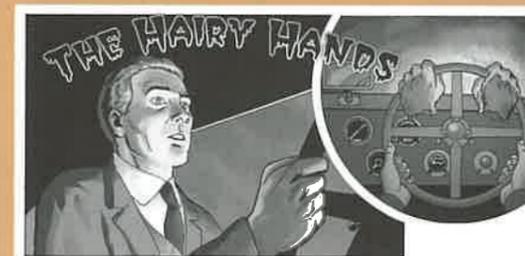

There are lots of stories about Dartmoor ...

Do you know the story of Sherlock Holmes and the Hound of the Baskervilles?

In the old days, there were dangerous 'highwaymen' on Dartmoor – like Captain Jack!

There are lots of scary stories about Dartmoor – like the story of 'The Hairy Hands'.

► Text file 5, p. 167

2 A trip across Dartmoor

- a) Close your eyes. Relax. Listen. Enjoy the trip.

- b) Talk to a partner. What did you see, hear, feel and smell?

I saw ...

I heard ...

I felt ...

I smelled ...

More practice 1 p. 145

► Workbook 1–2, p. 62